

18

Old Enoch I am sick.

Scribe 1 Wri - ting done.

Scribe 2 Wri - ting done.

Scribe 3 Wri - ting done.

Scribe 4 It's time for you to get some wri - ting done.

leggiere

p mf f

Bsn. f p

21

Enoch becomes angry and gets up.

Scribe 4 This is not a fe - ver.

Fl.

23
Old Enoch

Do not for - get whom you're tal - king to.

Vlc. + Db. mf

f 6

25

Tpt. mf cresc. molto espressivo

5 3

27

29

Fl. f

Hp. sfz

30

Scribe 1
You are E - noch, son of Cain, the first to write down our hi - sto - ry.

Scribe 2
You are E - noch, son of Cain, the first to write down our hi - sto - ry.

Scribe 3
You are E - noch, son of Cain, the first to write down our hi - sto - ry.

Scribe 4
You are E - noch, son of Cain, the first to write down our hi - sto - ry.

leggiere

mf Bsn. + Tbn.

32

Scribe 1
Who we are, where do we come from?

Scribe 2
Who we are, where do we come from?

Scribe 3
Who we are, where do we come from?

Scribe 4
Who we are, where do we come from?

mf

dolce

35

Old Enoch
Bah! Let some-one else be - gin.

Scribe 1
You're on top of o - ur list.

Scribe 2
You're on top of o - ur list.

Scribe 3
You're on top of o - ur list.

Scribe 4
You're on top of o - ur list.

mf

leggiero

38

37

Old Enoch

Some-one else can start wri- ting.

Scribe 1

You're the one we want!_

Scribe 2

You're the one we want!_

Scribe 3

You're the one we want!_

Scribe 4

You're the one we want!_

The scribes help Enoch to get dressed, pull out his desk, make his bed and sharpen his writing tools, getting everything ready.

39

Vln.

f

3

42

mf